

VIVA ZAPATA!

Thursday, May 15 .50
Cubberly, 7:30p.m.

Hollywood's sympathetic look at the Mexican Revolution. The film spends more time on the vagaries of Emiliano Zapata's personality than on his politics. John Steinbeck wrote the script and Elia Kazan directed. Marlon Brando and Anthony Quinn handle their roles and accents skillfully in mustaches.

Memorandum - April 3
7:30 Cubberly

The Battle of Algiers- April 8
7:30 Mem. Aud.

Strike - April 17
4:15 Cubberly

Salt of the Earth - April 24
4:15 Cubberly

To Die in Madrid - May 1
7:30 Cubberly

The Organizer - May 8
7:30 Cubberly

Viva Zapata! - May 15
7:30 Cubberly

With the exception of The Battle of Algiers, we are charging only 50¢ for these films. We hope that everyone can afford to see them. The series will cost us $1800.00, and in order to pay that cost, we hope that some of you will want to contribute more than 50¢.

up against the screen:
the people's theatre

spring, 1969

presented by
The Resistance and S.D.S.