Dear Mr. Ducommun:

We understand that the Board of Trustees is scheduled to meet on campus the morning of Tuesday, March 11. We are inviting you to attend an open meeting of the Stanford community that afternoon in Dinkelspiel Auditorium at 1:00 p.m.

There has been a great deal of community sentiment concerning the demands made by the Students for a Democratic Society about the University and Southeast Asia. Earlier efforts to arrange a meeting with you have failed. However, after the incidents at your January meeting, the need for this meeting has become obvious. We feel that you are now sufficiently aware of this and can adjust your schedules accordingly.

An open meeting is in fact the most appropriate means we have of informing the whole community of the issues at stake. The power of the Board of Trustees to determine University and corporate policy necessitates your participation in this meeting.

We hope that you will contact us to discuss the content of the agenda and arrangements for the meeting.

Very truly yours,

James Russell
