

NEWSPAPER ADVERTISEMENT

We must mobilize opinion outside the University if we are to be effective. We need immediate contributions and signatures of Stanford parents and friends for a full-page ad in the L.A. TIMES and the S.F. CHRONICLE. The ad would read:

WHO IS PRESIDENT NIXON CALLING "CAMPUS BUMS"?

They are our children, yours and mine. Students all over the country are protesting the war. They are not being heard. A handful have been driven to desperate acts. The vast majority are against violence -- on campus and in the world. Calling them names does not help the situation -- it serves the nation poorly and intensifies the crisis. Their dissent, and ours, must be heard.

Write or wire President Nixon urging him to STOP DIVIDING THE NATION AND STOP THE WAR BY ENDING IT, NOT EXPANDING IT.

Sponsored by the undersigned parents and friends of Stanford University students:

PLEASE CALL OR WRITE YOUR PARENTS TONIGHT AND URGE THEM TO SUPPORT THIS ACTION BY COLLECTING CONTRIBUTIONS AND SIGNATURES. Checks should be payable to STANFORD ADVERTISEMENT and sent to: A. Wilson, Department of Sociology, Stanford, California 94305. (X2356 for information)
