

WHAT YOU CAN DO

The following list of groups was organized to propose and carry out alternatives to "business as usual" by the Political Action Coordinating Committee (PACC). Should you like to join the groups already organized, call the leaders on this list.

1. Sell you U.S. Government Bonds - Phil Jackson (327-2920, X724) and Chris Maslach (X2280). A display of no-confidence in the U.S. government by selling these relatively low interest bonds.
2. Telegram campaign - Coleen Rand (X3102). A door-to-door campaign to discuss the Southeast Asian crisis and to urge people to telegram Washington.
3. Explore the possibility of sending a delegation to the California capitol, or to a major conference in San Francisco - Tom Smart (328-0286).
4. How to organize and sustain a general strike throughout the country - Pharmacology Dept. (321-2300, X5353), Arnow, Mizel, Pratt.
5. Fund-raising and soliciting contributions for anti-war political candidates and organizations.
6. Organization of unions in support of local and nationwide strikers - Barbara Judson, Med School (321-1200, X5353).
7. Volunteer work to sack groceries for Safeway, Co-op, and other stores and to allow workers time off if they will let us talk to customers and distribute literature - Brian Reddy (322-3670).
8. Leafletting, interviewing in low-income housing projects concerning Nixon's latest venture - Alan Schiffenbauer (X2280).
9. Many Stanford students have direct or indirect influence on people who own or control large amounts of money. How to get big money men to speak out against the war - Hans Dankers (651-1241).
10. Where does Stanford buy its material needs?
1. Department of Defense Contracts: who, what, where, and how to get rid of them - Larry Garlick (328-4540).
2. Getting students and alumni together to talk about the war and other things - Terry Taylor (245-8507) and John Rhead (327-8117).
3. Publicity about which banks support the war, so that people can keep their $ in ones that do not - Mike Mahoney and Bill Underwood.
4. Coordinating high school activities: local high schools - Sue Campbell (326-2520, X278); writing to old high schools - Jeanne Heuving (327-2920, X544).
5. Student-outside community contact: all calls to East Asian Studies (X3606); churches needing speakers - Bill Considine (328-8868).
6. Radicalization of the "Silent Majority" - Bill Mahler (322-0703).
7. Congressional "doves":
 Campaigning: Ben Page (X4066); Joe Cordes (Brown - 321-6411); John Schaefer (McCloskey - 948-1586).
 Canvassing: Gexi Palast (327-2920, X329); Steve Obler (321-1200, X5353).
