

to: Members of Congress

from: Citizens of Palo Alto, California and neighboring communities

We are deeply concerned about Cambodia.

We urge the Congress to exercise its constitutional power to stop the spread of the Asian War.

Help us place this ad in the Washington Post.

To get our message to the Congress of the United States in the most effective way possible, we want to run this ad next week on a full page in the Washington Post -- the one publication that every Senator and Congressman reads.

Fill this out and mail tonight:

Here's my check and name for the Washington Post ad expressing my concern about Cambodia.

NAME .....

We want to add your name to ours.

We want the names of as many residents of the Palo Alto community as possible to express to Congress our concern. Please talk to your neighbors. With enough support we can muster thousands of names for the ad in the Washington Post. Please send us your name and whatever donation you can afford from $1.00 to $25.00. Make checks payable to Washington Post, Inc. Send to Washington Post Ad, 610 University Avenue, Palo Alto, California 94301. Please be sure your name is legible.
