OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

July 9, 1969

To: Professor Eugene J. Webb
Graduate School of Business

From: K. S. Pitzer

Subject: President's Advisory Committee on ROTC Affairs

I should like to invite you to serve on a presidential committee of faculty and students to advise me on ROTC affairs. This appointment is as a replacement for Professor Gordon H. Bower, who is unable to serve.

Professor Alan S. Manne is chairman of the committee, and the other members are:

Professor J. Keith Mann
Professor Jean Mayers
Professor Lyman P. Van Slyke
Miss Carol Roesch
Mr. William N. Blanchard
Mr. Dan E. Caldwell

The responsibilities of the committee will be as follows:

1. To advise me on any problems concerning ROTC which may be brought to the attention of the committee or of the President's Office.
2. To advise and consult with my representative (Vice Provost Brooks) assigned to the administration of the ROTC Programs on the campus and to the task of negotiating revisions of the ROTC contracts or agreements with the Department of Defense and the military services.
3. To insure, on behalf of my office and of the Senate, that such revisions as may be negotiated with the Department of Defense and the military services are consistent with the spirit of the Senate actions and of the faculty's views as expressed in the April referendum with due consideration also of the student and trustee viewpoints as expressed by their respective resolutions.
4. To consider such problems as may be brought to the Committee's attention by individual participants in the ROTC programs and by those responsible for the conduct of these programs.

Professor Eugene J. Webb

5. To consider and advise me on any new proposals for military education programs which may be offered for the University's consideration.

I shall appreciate your willingness to serve on this committee.
With best wishes,

Yours very sincerely,

K. S. Pitzer
