

Can we abolish ROTC at Stanford? The answer is blowing in the wind. This Monday and Tuesday, we are asking that you boycott your normal classes and participate in the Stanford Liberation College instead. Our Boycott is a blow which we strike for freedom and against repression--of our movement in particular and of our society in general. By boycotting "Stanford as usual" we are demonstrating to President Pitzer, the Trustees, and the Faculty Senate that we refuse to accept repression of radical political opposition to their policies on this campus. Pitzer is committed to protect ROTC by any means necessary: last Thursday's sit-in was not violent; the violent police action was against our political act, not our tactics.

But this boycott is as much a rejection of our own tendency to be cynical as it is a rejection of the Stanford hypocrisy that "at Stanford the winds of freedom blow". The Liberation College is a way for us to come together and grapple seriously with Stanford, ROTC, and our futures in a broader context than we have taken time to do so far--the context of ecology, economics, the war, and the student movement as a whole. In the four corners of the Old Union Courtyard over 50 discussions will take place in two days. "Love", "Land", "Bread", and "Peace" are our issues and the names of our "classrooms" there. It's wide open--if you want to lead a discussion, put up a marker somewhere in the lawn and do it. We hope that the Liberation College can generate a firmer commitment and strategy for abolishing ROTC.

Exhibits, guerilla theatre, a child-care center, literature tables and music will be on White Plaza and around the fountains. On Monday night we will move to the street between Wilbur and Branner for a street dance, and during the noon hour both days the San Francisco Mime Troop and Stanford Gorilla Theater will perform.

Tuesday evening, we will come together (haven't got a place yet) and decide whether to expand and intensify the Boycott into a Strike. If we can't do it, then we will need to devise an alternative strategy to OFF-ROTC. Our choices are fairly few--it's really up to all of us to do all we possibly can to win.

Monday

Daily Activities

10:00-12:00 Liberation College discussion groups in Old Union Courtyard.
12:00- 1:00 S. F. Mime Troup -- People's Theater in White Plaza
Radical Raps--open mike in White Plaza
1:00- 5:00 Continuation of Liberation discussion groups
7:30- Street Dance between Wilbur & Branner

Liberation College Courses

10:00 Land: Radical Ecology--Katherine Barkley (cont'd in small groups at 11:00)
Love: The New Left--Fred Cohen
Bread: Come rap about anything you want
Peace: U. S. Foreign Policy--Steve Weissman

11:00 Land: Radical Ecology Seminars
Love: Women's Liberation--Amanda Rutherford
Bread: Is Urban Reform a Put On?--Fred Cohen
Peace: Subversive Thinking--Charles and Margot Drekmeier

1:00 Land: The Importance of Offing ROTC--Byron Georgiou
Love: Marxism-Leninism and the Revolutionary Youth Movement-Bruce Franklin
Bread: Rap about anything you want
Peace: Violence & Non-Violence --Jerry Vogel

2:00 Land: Bored of Trustees, Their Empire & Fiefdom -Mary Hanson & Jim Shoch
Love: From Woody to Arlo: Song & the Movement--Lenny, Bruce
Bread: Education-The Channeling Machine--Martin Carnoy
Peace: Experiences Organizing Workers--Roland Finston, U. S. E.

3:00 Land: China--Bill Elkins, Banning Garrett
Love: Social Science & Repression--Tom Forstenzer, Jeff Blum
Bread: Contemporary Labor Crisis--Larry Christiani, Marc Weiss
Peace: The Venceremos Brigade in Cuba--Ann Hipschman

4:00 Land: The Bank of Amerika's Burning Empire--Michael Sweener
Love: Mao's Thought is an Invincible Weapon--John Keilch
Bread: Open Discussion: Whither the anti-ROTC movement?
Peace: Law & Repression--Andy Cohen, Doran Weinberg, Jim Weipman

All day--Carnival in White Plaza
Free Music--bring your own instrument
Free Bread--bring your own wine
Free child care center near fountain

Daily Activities

- 10:00-12:00--Liberation College discussion groups in Old Union courtyard
12:00-1:00--"Alice in ROTC Land"--People's Theater in front of Tresidder
1:00--Panel on War in Southeast Asia--White Plaza
2:00--Liberation College discussions continue to 4:00
7:30--Open Meeting to decide strategy for offing ROTC--place to be announced

Liberation College Courses

- 10:00 Land: Ecology and Empire--Steve Weissman
Love: People's Medicine--Dr. Nortie Kalishman and Judy Carnoy
Bread: Science Against the People--Joel Yudken
Peace: How to Combat Facism--Miriam Cherry
- 11:00 Land: Fight the Imperialists at Home--Stop Dillingham---Lenny Anderson,
Bruce Polloch
Love: Dow Chemical: From Saran Wrap to Napalm--Why?--Mary Hanson
Bread: Science for the People--Joel Yudken
Peace--The High School Revolution--High School Students
- Tie Me Kangaroo Down, Court-- Paul Rupert -- carpool leaving TMU at 11:00 for Stanford Golf Course on San Mateo County Line
- 1:00 Panel discussion in White Plaza:
War In Southeast Asia--Prof. Franz Schurmann
Banning Garrett
Jim Shoch
- 2:00 Discussion groups following panel: Thailand--Harry Cleaver
Laos & Cambodia--Banning Garrett
Indonesia--David Ransom
Japan--Jim Shoch
Vietnam--Prof. Franz Schurmann
- 3:00 Land: Arab-Israeli Conflict--Lincoln Malik
Love: The Concept of Revolution--Prof. Leonard Waks
Bread: The Seventies--An Economic Depression?--Doug Kerty
Peace: Radical Hisory is People's History--Prof. Hal Kahn, Lynn Hunt
- 4:00 Land: Street Fighting Techniques-- Jim Shoch
Love: Revolutionary Research--- Larry Christiani
Bread: Bobby Seale-- Kenny Horston, Black Panther Party
Peace: Rebellion in the U.S. Military--members from Movement for a Democratic Military

WED., 7:30pm, tresidder lounge--forum on working class organizing

All day--Carnival in White Plaza
Free Music--bring your own instrument
Free Bread--bring your own wine
Free child care center near fountain

OFF ROTC

MEN WANTED
ROTC
MEASUREMENT
General
FITZER

BOYCOTT