

NOON RALLY!

The struggle against ROTC continues. It will last until ROTC is no longer a part of Stanford. It will continue because we will not permit the presence of an institution that functions only to support and expand world-wide American imperialism.

Today we will meet in a noon rally at White Plaza to tell the Stanford community about the progress of the struggle here and at Foothill College. Following the rally, as was decided in our open meeting last night, we will march to ROTC. There we will hold a militant all-day mill-in.

At ROTC affinity groups will meet to discuss the issues, strategy and tactics of the OFF _ ROTC movement.

Take a stand against the military presence on campus! Join us in this action and help us plan the next move against ROTC.
