

PALO ALTO TENANTS' UNION

TENT CITY AT STANFORD

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

MONDAY, Sept. 28, 7:30 PM: A program at Dinklespiel Auditorium, sponsored jointly by the PATU and the Stanford Radical Caucus. Speakers include Kenny Horston, founder and chairman of the Black Panther Caucus, United Auto Workers; and Jean Hobson, chairman of the Palo Alto Tenants' Union.

TUESDAY, Sept. 29, 8:00 PM: Movie- "Salt of the Earth." Aaron Manganiello, Chicano leader from Redwood City and Venceremos College, will speak.

WEDNESDAY, Sept. 30, Noon: Rally at White Plaza, Stanford. Speakers include representatives from the Palo Alto Council of Communes, Palo Alto Tenants' Union, a speaker from the Stanford Workers' Coalition, and a speaker from the Mountain View Tenants' Union. PATU will present its housing demands to Stanford.

Evening: Open mike at tent city. Discussion of Palo Alto's Master Plan. Movies- Panther flicks, Soledad Brothers.

THURSDAY, Oct. 1, Evening: HOUSING FORUM: Members of regional tenants' unions and interested civic groups. No flicks.

FRIDAY, Oct. 2, Evening: Discussion of political prisoners, several speakers. Movies- "I am Joaquin," Huelga films.

SATURDAY, Oct. 3, Evening: Torchlight parade to Lytton Plaza (scene of mass arrests on July 11) in downtown Palo Alto for rock music concert.

NOTE: The schedule of flicks listed above is tentative. Sorry that we can't be more definite.

The Palo Alto Tenants' Union TENT CITY AT STANFORD is a chance for you to learn about the housing crisis in this area, Stanford's responsibility in creating it, and what we can do to start to solve it. Don't miss it!